

Presentation to the North Carolina Criminal Justice Information Network (CJIN)

November 15, 2012

Michael McArthur, Chowan County CSC

N. Lorrin Freeman, Wake County CSC

The Role of Clerk

- Two myths
 - Clerks just write down what the judge says
 - Clerks are only responsible for keeping the paperwork straight
- Two truths
 - Most Clerks feel responsibility for effective operation of the criminal justice system
 - Clerks see themselves as part of a larger courthouse family

More with Less

The Court's Budget

- Since beginning of recession, 600 positions cut statewide
- 92% of court's budget goes to personnel
- Court's budget makes up 2.23% of total state budget

Working smarter

Working Smarter Using Technology

- Magistrate Video Project
 - 15A-304(d)(3) – Provides for officer to give sworn testimony by “means of an audio and video transmission” in obtaining an arrest warrant
 - Remote testimony also authorized for search warrants (N.C.G.S. 15A-245) and Initial Appearance (N.C.G.S. 15A-511)
 - Allows for LEOs to provide probable cause remotely without traveling to magistrates’ office
 - Currently piloted in three counties- Currituck, Macon and Jackson.

Working Smarter using Technology

■ Justice Reinvestment Act

■ Major changes to Probation

■ Limits Judges' ability to revoke

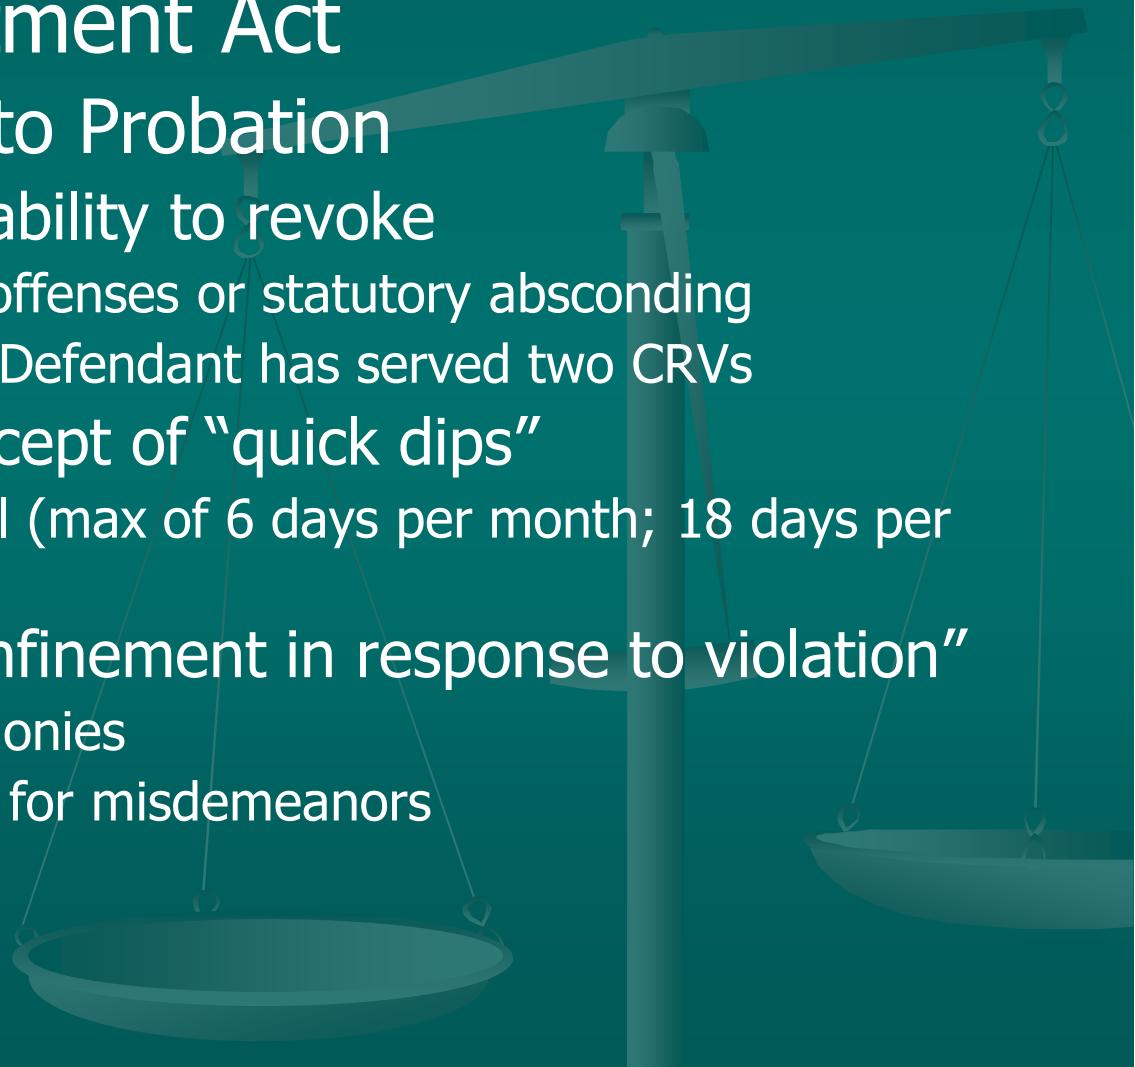

- Only for new offenses or statutory absconding
- May revoke if Defendant has served two CRVs

■ Introduces concept of "quick dips"

- 2-3 days in jail (max of 6 days per month; 18 days per case)

■ Introduces "confinement in response to violation"

- 90 days for felonies
- Up to 90 days for misdemeanors

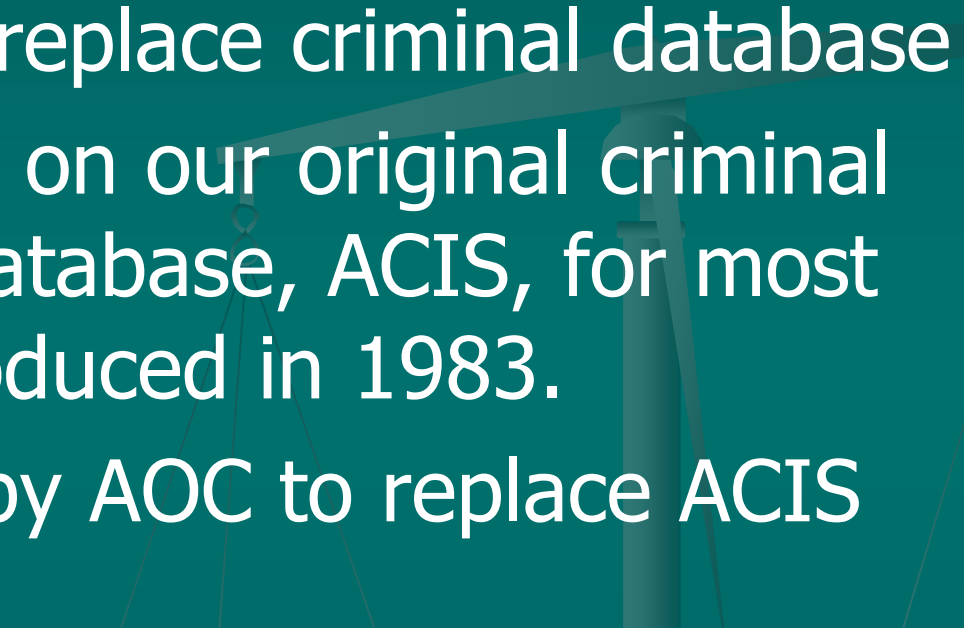

Working Smarter with Technology

- JRA

- Further increases need for courts to know what time has been served and what tools probation has used
 - Access to reliable probation and jail information

Working Smarter Using Technology- Wish list

- Clerks' priority- replace criminal database
 - Continue to rely on our original criminal case indexing database, ACIS, for most functions. Introduced in 1983.
 - Ongoing effort by AOC to replace ACIS with CCIS.
